

A description of a beach

As I look at the beach(1) I can see the black rocks(2) with waves(3) crashing violently against them and I can also see a tiny, yellow boat(4) that is as lonely as a spaceship. The sand looks as sticky as a swamp(5) and the sky is as dark as night. I can smell the salty(6) sea(7). I can smell greasy fish and chips(8) from the van(9). And I can hear a massive dog barking loudly (10) down the beach. I can hear the white seagulls(11) squawking and the waves crashing against the rocks and the little children shouting happily about their golden sandcastles(12).
