Phonics/ Reading Weekly Newsletter

This week we are excited to share with you the new phonics virtual learning lessons provided by the Department of Education based on the letters and sounds phonics curriculum:

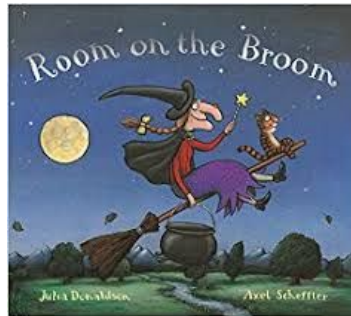

Letters and Sounds for home and school

Please have a look and see how they can help supplement the Read Write Inc virtual lessons we have already been providing:

Ruth Miskin Training

Don't forget to read your child's coloured phonics book with them over the week and practice the green words, tricky red words and finding/ writing the answers to the comprehension questions.

This week's story is...

Watch an animated version of the story here on the BBC iplayer:

Room on the Broom

Teacher videos!

Miss Bell has narrated a poem:

A massive thank you to all those children who have entered the phonics/ reading competition!

The winner will be announced next week and they will receive a gift voucher, certificate and prize!

The deadline has been extended so if you have not yet entered please e-mail or twitter your pictures to @crownlane or phonics@crownlane.lambeth.sch.uk

If you have any questions about your child's reading/ phonics lessons please use the phonics e-mail and we will get back to you promptly with the information you need to help your child learn to read at home.

Reading Quote of the week:

"You can find magic wherever you look, sit back and relax all you need is a book" Dr Seuss

Warmest wishes,

EYFS/ KS1 Phonics Team
