

Speech and Language Therapy Strategies

ATTENTION AND LISTENING

- Minimise distractions
- Keep instructions short and simple
- Use visual or verbal prompts to help your child focus on a task, remember to give praise for good listening.
- Use visual timetables/write down what is going to happen during the day to help your child know what is expected of them and what the plan is.
- Try to provide short breaks to help your child focus their attention more effectively.