WALT write our own version of the poem Don't.

Can you remember both parts of the poem we have been learning off by heart? Practise performing them in the mirror. Watch Michael Rosen's performance again to help you:

Write your own version of the poem.

Look at your ideas from yesterday. Can you add them into the poem?

Don't worry if they don't rhyme.

Don't do,
Don't do,
Don't do that.

Don't _____

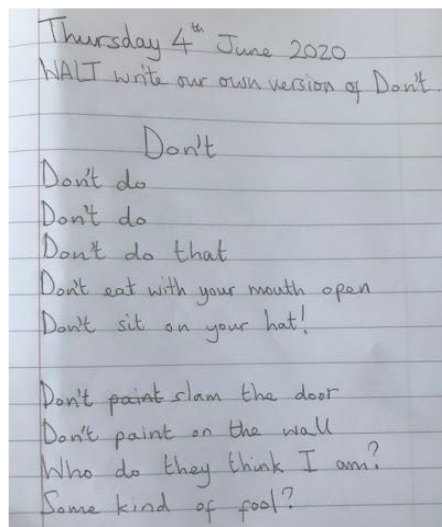

Don't _____

Don't _____

Don't _____

Who do they think I am?
Some kind of fool?

Here's my poem:

Learn the next part of the poem

Learn the next verse of the poem off by heart.

Watch the poem sentence by sentence and watch each sentence a few times. Think of some actions for each sentence first and this will help you remember the words. The words are below if you want them to help you.

Remember to:

- think of your own actions
- change your facial expression for different parts of the poem
- change your voice for different parts of the poem

Don't put confetti on your spaghetti
And don't squash peas on your knees
Don't put ants in your pants
Don't put mustard in your custard
Don't chuck jelly at the telly

Challenge:

confetti and spaghetti are rhyming words in the first line.

Can you spot the other rhyming words in each line?
