WALT mind map things we are told not to do.

🤔 Can you remember the first two verses of the poem that we learnt yesterday? Practise performing them in the mirror. Watch Michael Rosen's performance again to help you:

The first part of the poem lists things that we are often told not to do. The second part of the poem lists silly things that we would never do!

- Can you think of some things that you are often told not to do at home or at school?
  - Can you think of some silly things that you would never do!

✍️ Write your ideas in your purple book. Write the normal things on one side of your paper and the silly things on the other side.

Here are some of my ideas:

Can you get your silly ideas to rhyme?

Learn the next part of the poem

Learn the next verse of the poem so you don't need to read it. Can you remember what this is called?

Watch the poem sentence by sentence and watch each sentence a few times. Think of some actions for each sentence first and this will help you remember the words. The words are below if you want them to help you.

Remember to:

- think of your own actions
- change your facial expression for different parts of the poem
- change your voice for different parts of the poem

One day, they'll say

Don't put toffee in my coffee
Don't pour gravy on the baby
Don't put beer in his ear
And don't stick your toes up your nose

Challenge:

day and say are rhyming words in the first line.

Can you spot the other rhyming words in each line?
