Can you make a wig for your giant? Act out this part of the story with your puppets.

What do you think the characters are thinking now?

Draw a picture of Jim and the giant. Write a sentence above each of them to show what they are thinking.

Remember to:

- use your sounds to help you spell the words
- write in full sentences
- use a finger space between each word
- use a capital letter to start each sentence and full stop at the end
- use an exclamation mark at the end of the sentence, if it is surprising, exciting or forceful

Listen to the end of the story:

Have your ideas about the giant changed? What do you think the characters are thinking now?

Challenge

Act out the whole story from the beginning with your puppets and props!
