

WALT know when and how to use an exclamation mark.

Can you remember what an exclamation mark is?

Get moving again with the BBC Super Movers, Karim and Hacker

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/supermovers/ks1-english-question-exclamation-marks-with-karim-hacker/zkrx92p>

Exclamation Marks

Look out!

Stop!

I'll blow your house down!

Wow!

That's amazing!

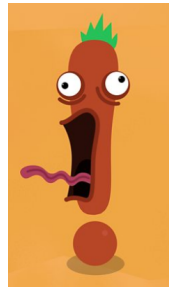

Leave me alone!

- An exclamation mark is used when something is surprising, exciting or forceful.
- It helps make the meaning of the sentence clear.
- It replaces a full stop at the end of the sentence.

Draw and colour an exclamation character of your own. You could give it eyes, a mouth, hair, whatever you like.

- Cut your exclamation character out.
- Use it to tell the members of your family when you can use an exclamation mark.
- Put it in your book to remind you to use it in your writing when something is surprising, exciting or forceful.

Well done for making your exclamation character!