

Spelling and Grammar Wednesday 06/05/20

WALT know when and how to use an exclamation mark.

Can you remember what an exclamation mark is?

Watch this Mr. Thorne Does Grammar video, 'How to use exclamation marks'.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=d8zgNFZ7Mxs>

Where's Geraldine?

Exclamation Marks

Look out!

Stop!

I'll blow your house down!

Wow!

That's amazing!

Leave me alone!

- An exclamation mark is used when something is surprising, exciting or forceful.
- It helps make the meaning of the sentence clear.
- It replaces a full stop at the end of the sentence.

Read these sentences out loud. Which of them could use an exclamation mark?

It's a giant.

I hope he has cornflakes.

I'm going to gobble him up.

I've got no teeth now.

Well done using your exclamation marks!