

Spelling and Grammar Wednesday 08/07/20 or 15/07/20

WALT make up our own command sentences.

Can you remember what a command is?

Have you played the game Simon Says before? To play the game you need to follow the instructions that Simon Says! Follow the link to play with Patty Shukla Kids TV: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OkO8DaPIyXo>

What bossy verbs does Simon say?

Imperative verbs (bossy verbs)

sit down	stand up	line up
put	stir	add
hold	join	fix
swing	jump	shake

- A command sentence is a sentence that tells someone to do something.
- Commands usually start with an 'imperative verb' also called a 'bossy verb' because it tells someone to do something.
- We use commands when we are writing instructions.

Line up at the door.

Stir in the sugar.

Stomp your feet.

Can you make up your own short dance routine?

Teach someone in your house to do the routine. Remember to use bossy verbs in your instructions! You could use these bossy verbs to help you:

move shake turn jump lift
