listen^{ed}

 What do you notice about our star words?

They are verbs written in the past tense. This means they are something that has happened. A lot of verbs add the -ed suffix at the end. Remember meeting 'ed' in this video about the past tense?:

Mr. Grinling's Day

Look back at your drawings from yesterday. Imagine you are Mr. Grinling again. It's the end of the day and you are exhausted but very happy with your day's work.

 Tell someone in your house or one of your teddies about what you did in the day and how you felt about it.

Remember to:

- use the past tense (rowed, cleaned, polished)
- use adjectives (describing words)

If you did this challenge yesterday, practise again!

Use these sentence starters to help you:

This morning

When I

Then

Next

At lunchtime

At night

This morning, I rowed across the calm sea to my amazing lighthouse.
When I got there I...

Diary

Do you write a diary at home? Some people write a diary at the end of the day. They write about what they did that day in a book so they can reflect on it and remember when they are older.

 Write a diary entry pretending you are Mr. Grinling. Write about what you did today and how you felt about it.

Remember to:

- use your FRED talk to spell your words
- use a finger space between each word
- use a capital letter at the beginning of your sentences
- use a full stop at the end of your sentences
- use the past tense (rowed, cleaned, polished)

Use these sentence starters to help you:

This morning When I Then
Next At lunchtime At night

Well done!

👏 Well done for writing your diary entry!

🗣️ Read it back with your parent or carer to make sure you have included all the things in our success criteria.
