WALT create a bedtime story front cover.

I love my bedtime story but I've nearly finished the book I am reading!

I'd love to hear your ideas for creating your own bedtime story that you can share with everyone!

Here is a link to a bedtime story 'Goodnight Mr. Panda' written and read by popular children's author Steve Anthony.

Here are some more bedtime stories you might have read before:

Can you make up your own bedtime story?

Think about:

- who or what is the main character
- what your story is about
- a good name for your story

Design a book cover for your bedtime story.

- ask a parent or carer to draw an outline of a book like the one below
- draw a picture on the cover to show what the story is about
- write the name of the story
- write a blurb about the story underneath (tell me why I want to read it!)

Here's mine. I love it! I might write the whole story over the weekend.

When you're tucked up in bed tonight, show your book cover to someone in your family and tell them your story. I'm sure they will love it!
