

Pyjamarama Friday 01/05/20

WALT understand different feelings and draw Mr. Panda.

Follow the link to this story 'Mr. Panda's Feelings' written and read by popular children's author Steve Anthony.

https://youtu.be/84Xkh\_yeFBc

Have you met Mr. Panda before? What was he doing?

How do the different animals feel in the story and why?

Guess the feeling!

- Read and write the different feelings from the story on separate pieces of paper.
- Put them upside down (so you can't see them).
- Take it in turns to choose one.
- Make a face or an action to show the feeling.
- Can your parent, carer or sibling guess your feeling?

Feeling pairs!

- Draw a picture of a face that shows each of the feelings you have already written above.
- Put them upside down on one side of the table and the names of the feelings upside down on the other side
- Take it in turns to pick up one word and one picture to see if they match.
- If they match, keep the pair. If they don't, put them back.
- The player with the most pairs, wins! (Then you can see real expressions of happiness and anger!!)

Did I forget any of the animal's feelings?

Remember that it is important that we talk to someone in our family about how we are feeling, especially if we are feeling sad, scared, angry or confused. Talking to someone can help us to feel better.

Let's draw Mr. Panda!

Follow the author's guide in the video above to draw Mr. Panda.

Challenge

Draw Mr. Panda holding something else. What would you share with someone? It could be some food, a toy or a book!

What goes black, white, black, white, black, white?

A panda rolling down a hill!
