

Wednesday 17th June

WALT write the introduction to a story

Success Criteria

use adjectives

use . ! ?

use different sentence starters

Today you need to write the introduction to your story. This is when you will set the scene and introduce your characters. You need to write up to the point they realise that they are alone.

You need to use adjectives to describe the setting and try to use different sentence starters.

When does it happen?	What is it like?
 On a story night ... One cold, dark night ... One frosty day ... One bright sunny morning ... It was a cold winter's day ... One warm summer day ... One warm summer day ... One breezy day ... One stormy night ... In the middle of winter ... Snow was falling ...	  night dark shadows gloomy peaceful quiet still mysterious starry secret frost snow snowy snowball snowflakes cloudy rainy misty puddles hot cold bright sunny steamy foggy damp breezy windy gusty howling blowing

For example

One stormy night in a shadowy and gloomy forest 4 little fox cubs slept. Their home was a cosy hole underneath a huge oak tree. One of the fox cubs named Sam was woken by a loud noise. "What was that?" he whispered to his brother and sister. Nervously, the 4 trembling foxes crept to the edge of their hole and peered out. Thunder and lightning flashed in the sky. Suddenly, Louise the second little fox realised that their Mum and Dad were not sleeping in the warm hole with them!