WALT: Answer comprehension questions

Re-read the story 'Yeti and the Bird' by Nadia Shireen from Monday and Tuesday's lesson.

Write the answers in full golden sentences in your home work books, if you can print off the story to help you answer the questions:

1. What word describes how the Yeti feels at the start of the story?
2. Write the three words that describe the Yeti at the beginning of the story:
3. What landed on the Yeti's head?
4. Where did the bird think she had landed?
5. Where did the Yeti take the bird? Why?
6. Why did the forest wake up to a peculiar sight? Why was it 'peculiar'?
7. What did the Yeti and the bird do that made the forest sleep?
8. Why did the bird need to leave the Yeti?
9. Why do you think the other forest animals became the Yeti's friends?
10. How do you think the Yeti feels at the end of the story?
