WALT: Answer reading comprehension questions using inference .

Re read the extract below.

‘Goodness gracious me!’ Aunt Spiker said, ‘What’s that awful noise?’

Both women swung round to look. The noise, of course, had been caused by the peach crashing through the fence that surrounded it, and now, gathering speed every second, it came rolling across the garden towards the place where Aunt Sponge and Aunt Spiker were standing motionless.

Then suddenly, they gasped. They screamed. They started to run. They panicked. They both got in each other’s way. They began pushing and jostling and each one of them was thinking only about saving herself. Aunt Sponge, the stout one, tripped over a box that she’d brought along to keep the money in and fell flat on her face. Aunt Spiker immediately stumbled over Aunt Sponge and came down on top of her. They both lay on the ground, fighting and clawing to get up again, but before they could do this the mighty peach was upon them.

There was a crunch. And then there was silence.

What do you think happens next...?

Put your creative hats on and write the next paragraph to the story.

- What happens to the peach?
- Is there something inside of the peach?
- What happens to the aunts?
- Did they have broken bones?
