Changing Sentences

Fronted adverbials

are adverbial words or phrases at the beginning of a sentence, which are used to describe the action (verb) that follows.

In your purple books, write the simple sentence:

I went to the zoo.

- Come up with at least 3 fronted adverbials.
- Read the new sentence aloud to your partner, using physical punctuation to show where the comma is.

Challenge: Try using a fronted adverbial from each of the different columns.
