WALT apply what I have learnt about the role of food in religions to plan a feast event.

Success criteria

I can recall key facts about the use of food in religions.

I can explain how food is used for meaning within religions.

I can apply the features of religious food rules and uses to plan an event.

Today you will be planning a special feast event.

Task 1

Complete the quiz on the power point.

Can you remember most of the key facts you have learned this week.

Go through the rest of the power point to recap how food is used in some religions.

Task 2

Planning a Feast

Your task is to plan a special feast event. You might choose a particular religion to plan your event for, or you might choose to plan a feast event that anyone – whether from all religions or none at all – could enjoy.

Think about:

- ◆ the food you will include and whether everyone will be able to eat them;
- ◆ how you will help everyone feel included;
- ◆ whether foods will be eaten or prepared in a special way;
- ◆ whether any of the food will be representative of anything;
- ◆ how you can help make the event feel like a celebration and what it might celebrate.

Task 3

Favourite Facts

- ◆ What have you learnt this week about food, fasting and celebration?

◆ Share your favourite fact with a partner and write it down in your purple book.
