Help Nathan Noun improve his paragraph by changing some of the nouns into pronouns.

Remember: Not all nouns need to be changed as this might make it more confusing!

Top tip!

Make sure you use each noun once before you change it to a pronoun.

Nathan Noun

Year 4 Grammar: Pronouns

Nathan is a great writer but he has a bit of a problem. He has forgotten to use pronouns in his work and has used the same nouns over and over again. This makes his work very repetitive! Please help him by replacing some of the nouns in his work below with pronouns to make it more cohesive (flow better).

Dragons are legendary creatures and dragons feature in many cultures around the world. Dragons typically have scaly skin and dragons are often said to breathe fire. The European dragon is depicted as a reptilian creature and the European dragon has four legs and wings. In fact, the patron saint of England is St. George and legend has it that St. George killed a dragon. The Asian Dragon (common in Chinese mythology) is a serpentine creature. The Asian dragon is usually depicted as an intelligent creature with four limbs but without wings. There are many stories about dragons and dragons have captured the public's imagination in many comics and films.
