

Friday 17.7.20

Remember your new teacher in year 6 would love to learn lots about you and what you might be looking forward to. Remember it is okay to feel a little nervous about becoming year6. As you still have the Summer Break, do focus on yourself and prepare for the next year. Start by telling your new teacher all about yourself. Use the format below or devise your own. You don't have to complete this in one day!
