

Friday 19th June 2020

Reading

WALT Understand how humour is used as a literary device

SHARE A STORY

Think of a story you read recently that tickled your funny bone. It doesn't have to be a whole book; it might just have been just one particular passage, or section of dialogue, or even a character description!

Find an example that you can show to someone else to spread the laughter. Spend ten minutes sharing it with your friends, family and classmates.

Can you make them laugh when you read it out loud? Remember, it's how you tell 'em!

SPARK YOUR IMAGINATION... AN INSPIRING SHARE A STORY CHALLENGE FOR YOU:

Watch the video for a quick recap of the expert advice from Jeff:

<https://www.worldbookday.com/online-masterclasses/telling-funny-stories/>

Write your own diary entry, making it as funny as you can. Start by thinking about things that have happened recently that made you laugh – have you had a funny moment at school, at home or on holiday that you remember?