

Friday 21.05.20

Continuing with our theme this week of improving and spotting mistakes. Here are some more!!

Spot the grammatical errors!

Each of these sentences contains a grammar mistake.
Can you re-write the sentence so that it is grammatically correct?

e.g. This homework is so easy; I can do them in five minutes!

This homework is so easy; I can do it in five minutes!

Verb tenses

- 1) She asked me where I am going.
- 2) Yesterday we go to the zoo but it is raining.
- 3) This morning I am starving but now I've had lunch I was ok.
- 4) They are doing their homework last night.
- 5) Tomorrow afternoon we have had a special treat.
- 6) I swim in the sea whenever the weather was fine.

Pronouns

- 7) Mrs Jones always gives out our homework as they leave the classroom.
- 8) "Give that to them." said the teacher, holding out his hand.
- 9) His name is Alexander but she likes to be called Alex.
- 10) That cat's mine and it's name is Flossie.
- 11) I'm going to a party at Carrie's house but I didn't know their address.
- 12) Thomas and Suhil never listen; he's not going to get better like that!

Subject/verb agreement

- 13) Zebras always have black and white stripes, isn't it?
- 14) The old car needs fixing but the new one don't.
- 15) Many children in poor countries doesn't have a chance to go to school.
- 16) Samed and Andrzej wasn't on the trip yesterday.
- 17) My hamsters are golden brown and she is called Goldie and Sunshine.