WALT explore the different types of poems and their features.

To remind you of what poetry is, go through the power point and learn about the types of poems and what features different poems may have. You have already written image based poems this year.

LEARN FROM POWER POINT

1. Make a list of different types of poems from the power point (third slide). Find out what some of these poems are. E.g. Sonnet, Kenning, Tanka... Choose three that are new to you and find out what they are and write their definitions.

2. Draw the table in your book and write an example from the power point for each feature.

Feature	Example from the power point	Own example
Simile
Oxymoron
Onomatopoeia
Hyperbole
Alliteration
Assonance

Now find out and write down what these words mean;
