

Wednesday 24.06.20

On Monday you learnt about subordinating conjunctions and did some practice too.

Do you remember the creature Wabub? Here he is again hiding under the bed!

Reminder of the conjunctions that he represents!

Subordinating Conjunctions

Here are 10 of the most common subordinating conjunctions. They are used at the beginning of a subordinating clause which is a clause that doesn't make sense on its own.

Subordinating Conjunction Jigsaws

I SAW A WABUB!

Use your super sentence writing skills to create a complex (multi-clause) sentence using different subordinating conjunctions. Read the main clause on the puzzle pieces, add an appropriate subordinating conjunction and then add your own subordinate clause. The first one is done for you as an example.

- |                                 |       |  |
|---------------------------------|-------|--|
| 1. The cold wind blew violently | after | the tornado hit the village.__________ |
|---------------------------------|-------|--|
- |                                       |       |                |
|---------------------------------------|-------|----------------|
| 2. The relaxed man snored on his sofa | _____ | __________ |
|---------------------------------------|-------|----------------|
- |                                      |       |                |
|--------------------------------------|-------|----------------|
| 3. Florence jumped high into the air | _____ | __________ |
|--------------------------------------|-------|----------------|
- |                   |       |                |
|-------------------|-------|----------------|
| 4. I hate Sundays | _____ | __________ |
|-------------------|-------|----------------|