WALT write a diary entry from a character's viewpoint

You have written a Diary Entry this term from a different character's point of view. Remember Macbeth's Diary.

Let's remind ourselves of the features of a diary entry.

- 1. Watch this video and make bullet point notes on what these features are.

<https://vimeo.com/221064596>

- 2. Next read the example of the diary entry on the next page. Find as many features as you can in this example.

If you can't print out and annotate the text then just identify the features and write examples from the text in your book.

The features are below to remind you.

- 1. Chatty style of writing
- 2. Your thoughts and feelings
- 3. Other peoples thoughts and feelings
- 4. First Person (I...We...)
- 5. Connectives (After , when, finally...)
- 6. Chronological order

Friday May 5th

We've finally got one! My mum has been trying to persuade my dad for ages to get a dog and he has always thought of a hundred reasons why we shouldn't get one. I think my mum had almost given up. Well today after we had all got home and were having a snack, there was a knock at the door. I opened it and there was a big box on the door step. I was a bit worried at first because there was no one there but mum and dad came towards the door too and dad was at the back telling me to open it. So then I opened the box and there inside, looking quite confused and shy was a gorgeous black puppy with a red bow around her neck! I picked her up and brought her into the house. Our house is quite small and not really set up for dogs! There are lots of ornaments everywhere. She scurried around our living room knocking a few things over and then we gave her some food. I felt so happy because I haven't got any brothers and sisters and I have wanted to get a dog for a long time. We decided to call her 'Surprise'.
