

Tuesday 31.03.20

WALT write a diary entry.

Now have a go at writing a Diary Entry of your own. Try and include as many features as you can and make it interesting to read. Choose one of the two contexts below;

1. A day spent at home so far
2. A diary entry from a character from a book you have read or reading.

Here are some sentence starters to help you;

- Today was the only day that I spent not watching TV...
- Even though it rained all day today I ...
- I had the best breakfast ever this morning because
- In spite of being indoors a lot these days we...
- After lunch I watched a really interesting programme.

Happy writing!

Writing a Diary

© Copyright 2013, www.sparklebox.co.uk

When?

today	January	morning
yesterday	February	afternoon
tomorrow	March	evening
Monday	April	bedtime
Tuesday	May	next
Wednesday	June	then
Thursday	July	before
Friday	August	after
Saturday	September	afterwards
Sunday	October	when
weekend	November
o'clock	December

How?

drove	jogged
flew	quickly
ran	slowly
walked

Feeling...

felt	sad
excited	tired
bored	glad
happy	cross

What?

went	television
travelled	games
journey	visited
shopping	cinema
arrived	swimming
drove	played
car	toys
saw	party
looked holiday
woke up
football

Where?

home
garden
town
inside outside
indoors
park

Who?

I
we family
brother
sister
Mum
Dad

